

Treasury Department,

BUREAU OF THE MINT,

Washington, D. C., December 15, 1887.

Sir:

While there is no objection to coining half-eagles this month at Philadelphia, as proposed in your letter of yesterday, five-dollar gold coins of 1887 are not likely to soon become rare, for thousands of pieces have been coined during the year at San Francisco, as well as eagles and double eagles.

Very respectfully,

Director of the Mint.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,

Superintendent U.S. Mint,

Philadelphia.

1678

Treas'y Dept.
Washington D. C.
Dec. 15. 1887.

James P. Kimball.
Director.

Says "Thousands of $5 gold coin of 1887, have been coined at San Francisco as well as Eagles and Double eagles, but there is no objection to coining half Eagles this month at Phila.

[Abstract:] Says “thousands of $5 gold coin of 1887 have been coined at San Francisco...”

Treasury Department,
Bureau of the Mint,
Washington, D.C.,
December 15, 1887

Sir:

While there is no objection to coining half-eagles this month at Philadelphia, as proposed in your letter of yesterday, five-dollar gold coins of 1887 are not likely to soon become rare, for thousands of pieces have been coined during the year at San Francisco, as well as eagles and double eagles.

Very respectfully,
James P. Kimball
Director of the Mint.

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Superintendent U.S. Mint,
Philadelphia.